POSITION OVERVIEW:

The Probation/Pretrial Officer Assistant serves in a U.S. Probation or U.S. Pretrial Services Office in a judiciary law enforcement position. The incumbent provides technical and administrative support to probation officers, primarily assisting with the supervision of low-risk cases, compiling information for investigations, coordinating with collateral agencies, drafting reports and correspondence, and performing similar duties.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

These include, but are not limited to the following:

- Under the guidance of a probation officer or supervisory probation officer, supervise a caseload of low-risk offenders. Investigate employment, sources of income, lifestyle, and associates to assess risk and determine compliance. Maintain case files and records, as well as detailed chronological records of activity.
- Assist probation officers with presentence investigations to include compiling criminal histories, and profiles, running record checks through local and national databases, conducting inquiries with collateral agencies, and performing other similar activities. Provide officers with accurate and factual information to assist in their completion of probation reports.
- Under guidance of a supervisory probation officer, draft and submit selected reports. Observe, and apprise the supervisor of the lifestyle, personal problems, and needs of offenders. Assist in the development of community resources to meet those needs.
- Under the guidance of a supervisory probation officer, respond to judicial officers' requests for information and occasionally testify in court, regarding the basis for factual findings.
- Conduct collateral investigations and draft and submit collateral reports.
- Collect and conduct urine tests on offenders of the same gender and maintain appropriate records.

Applicants 37 or over with previous law enforcement officer experience under the Civil Service Retirement System or the Federal Employees' Retirement System may be eligible for appointment.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

- Applicants must be U.S. citizens or eligible to work without restriction in the United States.
- Selected candidate must successfully complete an FBI background investigation with law enforcement agencies including fingerprint, criminal, financial and employment records check.
- Employment is considered provisional until the background check is successfully completed.
- Employees of the federal judiciary must adhere to all Judicial Conference regulations, follow the policies in the Guide to Judiciary Policy, and are bound by the Code of Conduct for Judicial Employees.
- Probation Officer Assistants serve under "Excepted Appointments" and may be removed only for cause.
- Employees are required to use direct deposit for payroll.

QUALIFICATIONS CONTINUED:

Background Investigations, Drug Screening and Medical Requirements:

This position is deemed as law enforcement. Prior to appointment, the selectee considered for this position will undergo a complete background investigation, medical examination, and drug screening. Upon successful completion of the medical examination and drug screening, the selectee may then be appointed provisionally, pending a favorable suitability determination by the court.

In addition, as conditions of employment, employees are subject to on-going random drug screening and updated background investigations every five years and, as deemed necessary by management for reasonable cause, may be subject to subsequent fitness-for-duty evaluations.

The medical requirements and the essential job functions derived from the medical guidelines for probation officer assistants and probation officers are available for public review at <http://www.uscourts.gov>.

Further, the selected candidate will be appointed provisionally (for one year). Retention will depend upon favorable suitability, determination of the background investigation, and satisfactory performance.
